GOD Save the KING.

Conſtantinople, June 15. There is little News ſtirring here. The Grand Seignor has lately prohibited the Smoaking of Tobacco in the Streets, and diminiſhed the Number of his Attendants in the Serraglio.

Hague, July 23. Letters arrived here Yeſterday from Berlin, and from Upper Saxony, which bring Accounts of a Battle between the King of Pruſſia and the Auſtrians near Pardubitz in Bohemia, on the 12th Inſtant, in which his Pruſſian Majeſty had been victorious. As theſe Advices do not come directly from the Pruſſian Army, we are impatiently waiting for a Confirmation of them.

The laſt Accounts from his Pruſſian Majeſty's Army are dated from Leitomiſchel in Bohemia, of the 7th Inſtant, by which it appears, That the Attack that had been made upon the Pruſſian Convoy near Domſtal, at a very bad Paſs in the Mountains of Moravia; that the Head of the Convoy had arrived ſafe in his Camp; that the Center had been put in Confuſion; that the Rear had retired to Troppau; and that the Pruſſians had loſt between 7 and 800 Men, killed, wounded and Priſoners; that the Want of Ammunition had obliged the King of Pruſſia to raiſe the Siege of Olmutz, which he had effected with the Loſs of three Mortars and one Piece of Cannon; and that he had marched into Bohemia, with his whole Army, without the Loſs of a Man; that he had taken the Auſtrian Magazine at Leitomiſchel, and was marching to take that of Koningingratz, which was very conſiderable, and would enable him to purſue his Operations with Advantage. The Auſtrians had made two forced Marches to gain Pardubitz before the Pruſſians; and our laſt Letters from that Army were of the 10th Inſtant, which renders the Probability of an Action on the 12th much greater.

henſions of an Invaſion into Brandenburg ſeems to be ſuſpended; and Prince Henry of Pruſſia has taken his Meaſures ſo as to be able to march to the Relief of that Part of the Pruſſian Dominions in Caſe of Neceſſity.

Prince Ferdinand of Brunſwick was ſtill in his Camp of Bedburdyck on the 23d Inſtant, and was Maſter of all the Bridges upon the River Erfft. The French were at their old Camp of Frauweiler, where it was uncertain whether they could maintain themſelves for Want of Subſiſtence.

Dr. ANDERSON's, or The Famous SCOTS PILLS;

ARE faithfully prepared only by JAMES INGLISH, Son of DAVID INGLISH, deceased, at the Unicorn, over-against the New Church in the Strand, London; and to prevent Counterfeits from Scotland, as well as in and about London, you are desired to take Notice, That the true Pills have their Boxes sealed on the Top (in black Wax) with a Lyon Rampant, and Three Mullets Argent, Dr. Anderson's Head betwixt I. I. with his Name round it, and Isabella English underneath the Shield in a Scroll. They are of excellent Use in all Cases where Purging is necessary, and may be taken with Epsom, Tunbridge, or other Medicinal Waters.

Two Cases communicated to Mr. John Newbery, at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church Yard, by the Revd. Mr. Thomas Barton, of York in Pennsylvania.

I Have administred Dr. James's Fever Powder, which I had of you, with great Success; and was I not well assured that the Character of it is sufficiently established in England, I should send you above 50 Certificates, or even Depositions, from Persons who received the utmost Benefit by it. Two Cases are so particular, that I cannot omit giving you some Account of them. Henry Giles, a Man about 60 Years of Age, was troubled for a considerable Time with a violent Palpitation of the Heart, which was to be heard, and even seen, by any Person in Company with him: It was attended with Faintness, convulsive Symptoms, loss of Appetite, &c. and after he had tried many Medicines without Effect, he applied to me for some of the Powder: I desired him to lose about 16 Ounces of Blood, at two different Times, and then to take a whole Paper at once. He observed my Directions, and is quite well. The other was that of a Dutch Woman, who laboured under what we call a Dumb Ague for above two Years. She put herself under the Care of a German Physician, who gave her many good Medicines, without any Success: I advised him to try a Dose of Dr. James's Powder, which removed her Disorder in a few Days.
